

Membership Payment Plan Option

What is the membership payment plan option?

The payment plan option allows you to pay your AHDI membership dues in four easy installments with your credit card. These payments will occur every three months in your annual membership term.

Does the payment plan automatically renew my membership every year?

If you would like to renew your payment plan you will need to select the payment plan option when your membership is due for renewal or you will have the option to pay the full amount at that time.

Who is eligible for the membership payment plan option?

Any renewing, reinstating, or new member is eligible.

How much will be charged to my credit card each payment?

Each payment will be divided into 4 equal payments and charged to your credit card. This amount is derived from your annual membership dues based on member category. The first installment will be charged to your credit card immediately upon completion of your membership order. You will receive an email notice when your next payment is due and being processed.

How do I sign up?

Renewing, reinstating, or new members can select the payment plan during the checkout process to set up the Membership Payment Plan or use the membership application, and fax it to 209-527-9633, email it to ahdi@ahdionline.org, or mail it to 3430 Tully Road, Suite 20 #112, Modesto, CA 95350.

If your contact information has changed, you should update your demographic information on your AHDI record or submit an updated membership application form to make the necessary changes.

Is there a fee to sign up for the payment plan option?

No, there is not a fee to sign up for the payment plan.

Is there a deadline to sign up?

Any renewing, reinstating, or new member may sign up during their application/renewal process.

Can I cancel my Payment Plan?

AHDI membership is for 12 months and dues are not refundable or transferable. You may elect to cancel your membership for the following year, but once you have enrolled in the payment plan, you have committed to paying for the full year of membership and are responsible for the annual dues.

What if my credit card is declined or expires?

You will receive an email informing you that your credit card was declined or has expired. It is your responsibility to contact AHDI and provide updated credit card information. If you fail to do so in a timely manner, your membership benefits will be interrupted.
