President's Message: Another Year Older, Another Year Newer

"It is essential that you know just how hard AHDI continues to work for you every day and what your membership fees and your volunteerism continue to support." – Patt King

I can't believe another AHDI term year is just about gone. We all say, "Time flies," but at AHDI it really does! What I find so exciting about my engagement in AHDI is that even though I know the organization is another year older, because we are always reinventing ourselves it is also always another year newer! Board of Directors Updates

President Patt King called the meeting to order and welcomed all in attendance. Today's meeting was the first of two meetings to be held this month, as the second meeting on Monday, August 26, will be the final meeting before President King "passes the gavel" to President-elect Stacy Lehto to begin the new Board year on September 1. Boost Your Resume by Volunteering Today

Volunteering benefits EVERYONE. AHDI benefits from your experience, expertise, and willingness to help; members benefit from all the work that we do and offerings we are able to provide; and you benefit from the networking and learning opportunities, not to mention the career growth and personal development potential! It's a WIN-WIN-WIN! And besides, it looks AMAZING on a resume. Please consider volunteering for one or more of the following
